

WORLD SUMMIT CLIMATE AND TERRITORIES TO BE HELD IN LYON FRANCE IN 1 JULY

BRIEFING AT THE SENATE 25 JUNE

Paris, Washington DC, 23.06.2015, 18:17 Time

USPA NEWS - World Summit Climate is organised by the major global networks of subnational and local governments hosted by Rhône-Alpes Region on 1-2 July in Lyon, under the Patronage of French President. The event is labelled COP21 partnered with United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC).

CITIES STATES REGIONS AND CIVIL SOCIETY PRESENT THEIR COMMITMENTS IN PREPARATION TO COP 21 IN FRANCE----- A key event in the 2015 global climate agenda, the World Summit Climate & Territories is the principal gathering of subnational and local governments and other non-State actors in the lead up to COP21 in Paris. Cities, states, regions and civil society from around the world will present their commitments for tackling climate change next week in Lyon at the World Summit Climate & Territories will be held at Lyon, in France, in preparation to the next COP 21.-----Subnational and local governments are at the forefront of climate action: they are taking action to reduce their greenhouse gas emissions and to adapt to the impacts of climate disruption. Their contribution will be key to the success of the Paris conference in December.

Six months before COP21, the World Summit Climate & Territories will be a unique opportunity for all the major groups of non-state actors (subnational and local governments, NGOs, business, workers and trade unions, youth, women, scientists) to make their voices heard, highlight the importance of a territorial perspective on climate.

In Lyon, they will present their concrete commitments and specific proposals to the negotiating States who are expected to agree on a new bold and universal climate deal in Paris in December to improve the world heritage.

Taking place six months before the UN Climate Conference Paris 2015 (COP21), the World Summit Climate & Territories will bring together 800 subnational and local government leaders and representatives from business, trade unions, youth, indigenous peoples and NGOs -- all of the non-state actors which are recognized by the United Nations. They will call for an ambitious climate agreement in Paris in December, which fully recognises the critical role of non-state actors for climate action. The proposals and commitments presented in Lyon will be based on workshop findings on 10 themes (low carbon economy and jobs, forests, agriculture, mobility and transports, climate finance, etc.), managed by the Summit's organising networks. They will be conveyed to COP21's French presidency, as well as to all States which are parties to the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC), tasked with concluding a new, universal and ambitious climate agreement in Paris in December.
